Dear Louisiana Board of Ethics:

I am writing in response to communication regarding late fee assessments. Initially, I received a Campaign Packet which ONLY included forms pertaining to my personal finances. The forms were completed and submitted in the appropriate manner and timeframe.

A Few Days After The Election, a constituent/family friend familiar with the campaign process shared some campaign reporting information and pointed out that there were additional forms that needed completion and submission. Those forms were the following:

- 30 Day Prior Report
- 10 Day Prior Report
- Election Day Expenditures Report

They were also gracious enough to inform as to how to locate ONLY those (3) forms online. A vigorous initiative began to ensure the forms were completed and submitted.

Upon receiving correspondence on May 26, 2021, and speaking with Ms. Melissa Horn, information was shared indicating that a 10 Day General Report should also have been submitted. She also provided information as to how to access the schedule form with listed reports names and dates.

I am humbly and respectfully, requesting a waiver for the following:

- 30 Day Prior Report- Fee: $1000.00
- 10 Day Prior Report- Fee: $1000.00
- 10 Day General Report- Fee: $2000.00

Please consider my request for wavier as I believe in my city and my state. I am humble servant and do not possess the assets to satisfy these assessment fees. I am grateful for the opportunity to submit the request and for any assistance you can offer in addressing this financial hardship.

Sincerely,

David Charles, Logan, Sr.
